PREAMBLE.

WHEREAS, It has become only too evident, from the steady decline of proper celebration of our national holidays, that popular interest in the events and men of the War of the Revolution is gradually fading away :

AND WHEREAS, We believe that this lack of interest is to be attributed, not so much to lapse of time and to the rapidly increasing flood of emigration from foreign countries, as to the neglect on the part of descendants of Revolutionary heroes to perform their duty of keeping before the public mind the memory of the services of their ancestors and of the times in which they lived :

THEREFORE, the Society of the SONS OF THE REVOLUTION has been instituted to perpetuate the memory of the men who, in military, naval, and civil service, by their acts or counsel, achieved American Independence; to promote the proper celebration of the anniversaries of Washington's Birthday, and prominent events relating to or connected with the War of the Revolution; to collect and secure for preservation the manuscript rolls, records, and other documents relating to the War of the Revolution; to inspire among the members of the Society and their descendants the patriotic spirit of their forefathers; and to promote social intercourse and the feeling of fellowship among its members.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

The name of the Society shall be "THE PENNSYLVANIA SOCIETY OF SONS OF THE REVOLUTION."

ARTICLE II.

The Society shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE III.

The purpose of the Society is to keep alive among ourselves and our descendants the patriotic spirit of the men who, in military, naval, or civil service, by their acts or counsel, achieved American Independence; to collect and secure for preservation the manuscript rolls, records, and other documents relating to the War of the Revolution; and to promote social intercourse and good feeling among its members now and hereafter.

ARTICLE IV.

Any person shall be eligible to membership in the Society who is a male above the age of twenty-one (21) years, and is descended from an ancestor who—either as a military or naval officer, soldier, marine, or sailor, or member of the Committees of Correspondence and Public Safety, Naval Board, Board of War, or as a Signer of the Declaration of Independence, or as a member of the Continental Congress—assisted in establishing American Independence during the War of the Revolution; and no person other than such shall be eligible to membership in the Society.

ARTICLE V.

The officers of the Society shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, to be elected annually, and a Board of Managers, consisting of those officers ex officio, and nine other members, three of whom shall be elected each year to serve for three years. The Board of Managers shall have power to fill vacancies that may occur in their body until the next annual election, when the places vacant shall be filled for the unexpired term.

ARTICLE VI.

The insignia of the Society shall be a badge suspended from a ribbon by a ring of gold. The badge of the Society shall be elliptical in form, with scalloped edges, one and one-quarter inches in length, and one and one-eighth inches in width; the whole surmounted by a gold eagle, with wings displayed, inverted. On the obverse side a medallion of gold in the centre, elliptical in form, bearing on its face the figure of a soldier in Continental uniform with musket slung, beneath the figures "1775;" the medallion surrounded by thirteen raised gold stars of five points each upon a border of dark-blue enamel. On the reverse side in the centre a medallion corresponding in form to that on the obverse, and also in gold, bearing on its face Houdon's portrait of Washington in bas-relief, encircled by the legend "SONS OF THE REVOLUTION," beneath the figures "1883," and upon the reverse of the eagle the number of the particular badge engraved, the medallion surrounded by a plain gold border, conforming in dimensions to the obverse, upon which members may have their names engraved in script. The ribbon of the Society shall be dark blue, ribbed and watered, edged with buff, one and one-quarter inches wide, and one and one-half inches in displayed length. The insignia of the Society shall be worn by the members on all occasions when the members shall assemble as such for any stated purpose or celebration. It shall be carried conspicuously on the left breast. The badge shall never be worn as an article of jewelry. The custodian of the insignia shall be the Secretary, who shall issue them to members of the Society in this and other States upon the order of the Board of Managers, under such rules as they may prescribe.

ARTICLE VII.

The seal of the Society shall be one and seven-eighth inches in diameter, and shall consist of the figure of a Minute-Man in Continental uniform standing on a ladder leading to a belfry; in his left hand he holds a musket and an olive-branch, whilst his right grasps a bell-rope. Above, the cracked Liberty Bell; issuing therefrom a ribbon bearing the motto of the Society: "Exegi monumentum ære perennius." Across the top of the ladder, on a ribbon, the figures "1776," and on the left of the Minute-Man, and also on a ribbon, the figures "1888," the year of the formation of this Society, the whole encircled by a band three-eighths of an inch wide; thereon at the top thirteen stars of five points each, at the bottom the legend, "PENNSYLVANIA SOCIETY OF SONS OF THE REVOLUTION."

ARTICLE VIII.

This Constitution shall be altered, amended, or repealed only by a vote of three-fourths of the members of the Society present, at a meeting specially called for the purpose of such alteration, amendment, or repeal, after ten (10) days' notice in writing having been given of such meeting.

BY-LAWS.

SECTION I.

Members shall be elected as follows: Candidates shall send their names and documents, or other proofs of qualifications for membership, to the Board of Managers, and, upon a favorable report from said board, and upon payment of the initiation fee, may thereupon become members of the Society.

SECTION II.

The initiation fee shall be five (5) dollars; the annual dues three (3) dollars: Provided, That any member who shall have been elected during the last three months of the fiscal year shall not be required to pay the annual dues for the current fiscal year. The payment at one time of fifty (50) dollars shall constitute a life membership. The payment at one time of one hundred (100) dollars shall constitute a perpetual or endowed membership, and upon the death of the member so paying, the membership shall be held by his eldest son, or such other descendant from the ancestor from whom he claims as he may nominate; in failure of such nomination having been made, the Society may decide which one of the descendants shall hold the membership: Provided always, that the Society reserves to itself the privilege of rejecting any nomination that may not be acceptable to it. All those holding life or endowed memberships shall be exempt from the payment of the initiation fee and annual dues.

SECTION III.

All initiation, life, and endowed membership fees, as well as donations which shall hereafter be paid the Society, shall remain forever to the use of the Society, of which the interest only shall be used.

SECTION IV.

The Society shall hold an annual meeting on the third day of April, 1889, and in each and every year thereafter, at which a general election of officers by ballot shall take place, except when such date shall fall on Sunday, in which event the meeting shall be held on the following day. In such election, a majority of the ballots given for any officer shall constitute a choice; but if, on the first ballot, no person shall receive such majority, then a further balloting shall take place in which a plurality of votes given for any officer shall determine the choice.

SECTION V.

At all meetings of the Society ten (10) members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except at a meeting called under Article VIII. of the Constitution.

SECTION VI.

The President, or in his absence the Vice-President, or in the absence of both, a chairman pro tempore, shall preside at all meetings of the Society, and shall have a casting vote. He shall preserve order, and shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Society.

SECTION VII.

The Secretary shall conduct the general correspondence of the Society. He shall notify all members of their election, and of such other matters as he may be directed by the Society. He shall have charge of the seal, certificate of incorporation, by-laws and records of the Society, and shall issue certificates of membership. He, together with the presiding officer, shall certify all Acts of the Society. He shall, under the direction of the President or Vice-President, give due notice of the time and place of all meetings of the Society, and attend the same. He shall keep fair and accurate records of all the proceedings and orders of the Society; and shall give notice to the several officers of all votes, orders, resolves, and proceedings of the Society affecting them or pertaining to their respective duties. He shall be Secretary of the Board of Managers, and shall keep the record of their meetings in the regular minute-book of the Society.

SECTION VIII.

The Treasurer shall collect and keep the funds and securities of the Society; and so often as those funds shall amount to one hundred (100) dollars, they shall be deposited in some bank or trust company in the city of Philadelphia to the credit of "The Pennsylvania Society of Sons of the Revolution," and shall be drawn thence on the check of the Treasurer for the purposes of the Society only. Out of these funds he shall pay such sums as may be ordered by the Society, or by the Board of Managers. He shall keep a true account of his receipts and payments, and at each annual meeting render the same to the Society, when a committee shall be appointed to audit his accounts. He shall give such security as shall be required by the Board of Managers.

SECTION IX.

The Board of Managers shall consist of thirteen,—namely, the President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer, ex officio, and the remaining nine elected as hereinbefore provided for in the election of the officers of the Society.

They shall judge of the qualifications of the candidates for admission to the Society, and upon the recommendation of the Committee on Admissions shall have power to elect the same to membership. They shall have charge of all special meetings of the Society, and shall, through the Secretary, call special meetings at any time, upon the written request of five members of the Society, and at such other times as they see fit. They shall recommend plans for promoting the objects of the Society, shall digest and prepare business, and shall authorize the disbursement and expenditure of unappropriated money in the treasury for the payment of current expenses of the Society. They shall generally superintend the interests of the Society, and execute all such duties as may be committed to them by the Society. They shall appoint a Registrar, who shall keep a roll of members, and in whose hands shall be lodged all the proofs of membership qualification, and all the historical and other papers of which the Society may become possessed; and who, under the direction of such Board of Managers, shall make copies of such similar documents as the owners thereof may not be willing to leave permanently in the keeping of the Society. Such Registrar, if practicable, shall be a member of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania.

At each annual meeting of the Society they shall make a general report.

At all meetings of the Board of Managers a majority shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

SECTION X.

The Chairman of the Board of Managers shall appoint annually three members thereof as a Committee on Admissions, whose duty it shall be to pass upon the qualifications of applicants for admission to the Society, and report to the Board of Managers.

SECTION XI.

Ayes and nays shall be called at any meeting of the Society upon the demand of five members.

SECTION XII.

No alteration of the By-Laws of the Society shall be made unless such alteration shall have been proposed at a previous meeting, and shall be adopted by a majority of the members present at any meeting of the Society, five (5) days' notice thereof having been given to each member.
